Dedication

With deepest gratitude and sincere appreciation we, the Seniors of 1959, dedicate this yearbook to MR. CARL GRAD, our principal. We feel we are richer and better, both intellectually and spiritually, because of the long hours of unselfish labor he willingly gave to help us. As we go forth in the future, his guidance, earnestness, honesty, and perseverance shall always be an inspiration to us.

"We will have these moments to remember"

Class History

Our school holds many memories for us. We, the Seniors, entered Wendell School in the year, 1947. We began our struggle for knowledge with the help of our first grade teachers, Mrs. Wells and Mrs. High.

The third grade was a busy year. We worked hard selling candy and tobacco to help pay for a new slide. However, it was just our luck that the next year they decided we were too old to slide.

As time slipped by, there were parties, chapel programs, and trips. We'll never forget the day we visited the Fire Tower in Knightdale. After climbing the tower, George said, "This is probably the nearest I'll ever get to heaven."

One day while in the seventh grade we were all feeling mischievous. Miss Lessie caught us playing "pass-it-on" and gave each of us a big "lick."

The years passed, and suddenly we found ourselves in the eighth grade. After presenting our play on North Carolina, we visited the Planetarium in Chapel Hill.

High School was a big step in our lives. Algebra and General Science were everyone's headache. In Physical Education the girls enjoyed drilling on Academy Street, singing songs like "Battle Hymn of Republic" and "The Marine's Hymn."

In our Sophomore year things were easier for us, for we had become adjusted to the many hardships of a high school student.

Our Junior year began with our selling Christmas cards. We will always remember our Junior play, "Hillbilly Courtship," especially bashful Wash Jeddo. Later that year we received our class rings. We can not think of our trip to Williamsburg without remembering that the bus broke down in Zebulon and Rocky Mount. The most outstanding event of the year was the banquet. Our theme was "Rendezvous to the Stars," and we spent many hours preparing for it.

Finally! We took our seats in the Senior classroom, with our sponsor, Mrs. Perry. This last year was really a busy one with selling magazines, working on the Annual, putting on the Senior Play and many other things. Wendell was very proud for "College Day" to be held here.

The Juniors gave us a beautiful banquet and we thoroughly enjoyed it.

As we walk down the aisle tomorrow night for the last time, we realize that we will be stepping into another phase of life in which we will begin working toward new goals.

Class Poem

The time has come
When we must part,
But memories of here
Will stay in our heart.
As years will pass
And we each go our way,
We'll remember the good times
Of each good day.

As we stop to think,
Tears fill our eyes.
We've ended our childhood,
The best part of our lives.
To our school, friends, and teachers
We'll say our last good-bye;
And we'll never forget
Dear Wendell Hi.

Class Song

We've had to give a little, take a little,
And sometimes break the rules a little,
That's the story of the dear old school that we love.

Our teams have won a little, lost a little,
It makes us have the blues a little,
To think of leaving this dear old school that we love.

We've tried to learn our Algebra
And English One, Two, Three and Four.
But if the world is proud of us,
We'll have to learn much more.

We leave to you, the Juniors,
All our Memories
And hope that you can carry on for
The Class of '59
Of Wendell High that we love.

Class Prophecy

My how time marches on! Ten years can certainly make a difference. It was great to meet our classmates of 1959 back in our old homeroom at Wendell High. It seemed just like old times—

Why, there was BETTY ALFORD, straight from New York, where she is now Editor of the New York Times. We remember her as the very efficient Editor of the Wendell Hi-Life, our school paper.

JIMMY BATTEN has gone into the candy business. His chief product is "Sugar-Daddies."

Mrs. Billy Wheeler, whom we knew as FAYE ALFORD, is now the successful owner and operator of "Fay's Beauty Shop."

JOHN CURTIS TODD now has his own comedian show. He got his "first" break, playing Wash in Hillbilly Courtship, our Junior play.

I hear that FAYE HINNANT is making arrangements for a personal appearance on the Ed Sullivan Show, since being crowned Miss America of 1965.

HILTON MAYE and ARTHUR MACE are now running mates on the Washington Redskins' football team. They never could stay off the football field.

SHIRLEY PRIVETTE is now owner of the "National Weight Reducing Gym." Of course, she is one of her best customers. She now weighs 135 pounds—unbelievable, isn't it?

NED PEARCE has accepted a life-long job with the Wendell Police Department. He is also a member of the "National Pestors Club."

TEMPIE GRIFFIN is now Governor Hodges' private secretary. She is finally putting her "arguing ability" to some use. (She's debating in politics for Mr. Hodges!)

How To Get Along With Others, a newly published book by BRUCE MARSHBURN and MELVIN HOLLIFIELD, is being widely read. They always did get along well together!

BETTY PURYEAR is now driving her own 1962 souped up, Ford convertible along the speedways. She has become the first woman to cap the title, "The World's Racing Champion." She always could handle a car!

Our classmate, HENRY UNDERHILL, has become famous as the founder of the "Beauties of America Club" of which he is the only male member. He never could resist girls, especially "out-of-town" girls.

LINDA LONG is still asking, "May I help you?" She now has her own store, "Long's Style Shop," in Wendell. Remember the old saying, "Experience is the best teacher!"

It seems that the grocery business is really thriving. The "one-and-only," GEORGE PLEASANTS, now has a grocery store which competes with his brother's.

FAYE RAPER and NANNIE GURLEY finally decided to live a little—They've joined the WACS!

I guess we have also changed for here am—

I, BARBARA ANDERSON, riding high as an airline hostess with the Pan American Airlines.

And I, TIM LOVELACE, president of a large insurance firm and happily married with twelve children, still going for things in a big way!
